

13 Things To Do This Weekend (Nov 15-Nov 17)

What's the story with this weekend's weather ? It's actually going to be a relatively great weekend in terms of weather! While will get close to freezing as a low overnight on Saturday, it will be in the middle to upper 50s all weekend. For some of us, that is still T-Shirt weather! Best part of the weekend is a 0% chance of rain. So head outdoors and enjoy the good weather before it gets cold and snowy!

As always, click on the title for more or detailed information on the event. Most of the events were pulled from our event calendar where you can find hundreds of local area events each month. The event calendar is FREE, so if you are a local business, and not taking advantage of FREE publicity, shame on you! Are you a local business and want to sponsor this high traffic, weekend guide? Contact info@newbedfordguide.com for more details. Have an event to add? Check out our tutorial. For more info, you can click on each title. Know of another event this weekend? Post a reply!

Celebrate The Seasons: Tablescape Show House at the RJD. Day 1 (10:00am-5:00pm)

Nothing sets the tone for a truly memorable celebratory gathering—be it a special family celebration, Christmas Party or New Year's Eve Gala—than a beautifully set table. With the season of hospitality and holiday celebrations fast approaching, the Rotch-Jones-Duff (RJD) House & Garden Museum will host "Celebrate the Seasons" on November 14-16, a show house of holiday tablescapes designed to delight and inspire. More than 25 teams of top designers, amateur and professional.

"Kale Soup For The Soul" Poetry Series (Dartmouth) (5:30 pm)

Kale Soup for the Soul literary reading series featuring Portuguese-American writers reading work about family, food and culture. MISSION: To bring awareness of Portuguese culture and literature to general and academic audiences. To form a bridge between Portuguese-American writers and Portuguese writers. To connect with Portuguese communities in the US through a sharing of stories. At UMass Dartmouth, Prince Henry Society Reading Room @ Ferreira-Mendes, the Portuguese-American Archives. Writers: Nancy Vieira Couto, Carlo Matos, Amy Sayre Baptista, Millicent Borges Accardi and Paula Neves.

Dock-U-Mentaries Film Series "Tugging Through Time" (7:00 pm-8:00 pm)

Tugging Through Time, a documentary produced by Third Wave Films, is the story of New York Harbor tugboats, from the first steam ferries, to today's state of the art Z Drive Tractor Tugs. The film combines rare footage of early steam tugs, on board footage of today's modern tugs at work, interviews with tugboat company presidents, and an original soundtrack. The film will be followed by a slide show depicting a decade of work at the New Bedford-based Tucker Roy Marine Towing and Salvage Company (circa 2000-2010). Members of the Roy family, which has three generations of tug boat operators, will be on hand to answer questions about the work of tugboats and barges.

FHS Theatre Company presents "Arsenic and Old Lace" Day 1 (7:30 pm)

The play is a farcical black comedy revolving around Mortimer Brewster, a drama critic who must deal with his crazy, homicidal family and local police in Brooklyn, NY, as he debates whether to go through with his recent promise to marry the woman he loves.

His family includes two spinster aunts who have taken to murdering lonely old men by poisoning them with a glass of home-made elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine, and "just a pinch" of cyanide; a brother who believes he is Theodore Roosevelt and digs locks for the Panama Canal in the cellar of the Brewster home (which then serve as graves for the aunts' victims); and a murderous brother who has received plastic surgery performed by an alcoholic accomplice, Dr. Einstein to conceal his identity and now looks like horror-film actor Boris Karloff (a self-referential joke, as the part was originally played by Karloff). $12 adults, $10 for students and seniors, $7 for children under 12. Tickets available at the door.

Weld Square at No Problemo W/Till Tomorrow (10 pm)

Weld Square is a Rock & Roll trio from New Bedford, MA. Formed in 2011, the group consists of Joe Froias on vocals and guitar, Kev Patrick Nunes on bass, and Derek Brasseur on drums. In 2012, they released an EP called Femme de Maison. Catch them live and FREE with Till Tomorrow starting at 10pm.

Chocolate pairing with Brigadeiro Barn (12:00 pm-6:00 pm)

Wine and chocolate is in my opinion, the perfect combination! Join us as we welcome Grasiela from her company Brigadeiro Barn (<http://brigadeirobarn.com/>) to taste her delicious hand-rolled chocolate truffles complimentary along with our wines. Her brigadeiros (Brazilian truffles) expertly paired with a bottle of our wine make for an excellent hostess gift (and after-dinner treat) on Thanksgiving!

Judith Klein Art Gallery Grand Opening (4:00 pm – 7:00pm)

Hello Friends, I have moved into my studio at 127 Rodney French Blvd. and am planning a Grand Opening. My studio has been painted and my work exhibited on the walls. I have invited several artists to show their work. I can be reached by cell 508-965-7396. Please feel free to contact me, visit my studio, or call to “just catch up”. I will continue to give art lessons, exhibit my work and most important get back to “my creative place.”
