

14 Things to do this Weekend (Feb 05 – Feb 07)

After an eventful Friday, things will gradually (relatively speaking) warm up and the sun will pop its head out. Saturday will be without the snow, and only a degree or two warmer. Sunday will be in the lower 40s with plenty of sunshine. Nothing that will stop us from heading out and enjoy all the goings-on, across the South Coast!

As always, click on the title for more or detailed information on the event. Most of the events were pulled from our event calendar where you can find hundreds of local area events each month. The event calendar is FREE, so if you are a local business, and not taking advantage of FREE publicity, shame on you! Are you a local business and want to sponsor this high traffic, weekend guide? Contact info@newbedfordguide.com for more details. Have an event to add? Add it here. Know of another event this weekend? Post a reply!

Jasmine Guy in Raisin’ Cane at the Zeiterion Theater (8:00pm)

Starring the award-winning actress, singer, and dancer Jasmine Guy, and the acclaimed Avery Sharpe Jazz Trio, Raisin’ Cane celebrates and honors the legendary voices of the Harlem Renaissance through text, song, music, movement, and imagery. The words and thoughts of Langston Hughes, Countee Cullen, Zora Neale Hurston, W.E.B. Du Bois and many others, became the voice of a new generation of African-Americans looking forward but still struggling with the past and present. These thoughts, songs, and images are woven into a panoramic experience that spans this extraordinary outpouring of artistic endeavor that encapsulated the essence of 1920's Harlem. Raisin' Cane is a window on this critical point in American history, and its lasting impact on modern hearts and minds.

LGBTQ Network Marks 10-Year Anniversary of Puzzles Lounge
(7:00pm-9:00pm)

Joseph da Fonseca, Network Coordinator of the South Coast LGBTQ Network, said, “We will join together as a compassionate and just community to remember the survivors and others affected by the Puzzles Lounge incident. It was a traumatic event that struck at the heart of the local LGBTQ community. Ten years ago, our local leaders recognized this event as a spark to organize for increased support of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender individuals facing a variety of educational, social and legal challenges. And now, this anniversary also helps us to appreciate the strong progress in local LGBTQ services and support born from such tragedy.”

At 7:00pm, a commemoration service will be held at the First Unitarian Church featuring a program of speakers who were involved in organizing the community response in the days and weeks following the Puzzles incident. Immediately following the service will be a candlelight walk to A Perfect Place, the local LGBTQ youth community center (484 Pleasant St. New Bedford). A Perfect Place traces its history as an organization back to the formation of the LGBT Youth, Education, & Schools Committee, which itself was created from the response to the incident at Puzzles.

At 9:00pm, the evening will conclude with a special event at Le Place (20 Kenyon St New Bedford) celebrating the spirit and community of the Puzzles Lounge. Live entertainment highlights this fundraiser for the South Coast LGBTQ Network which works to build a comprehensive support network for LGBTQ individuals and families in our South Coast community. First Unitarian Church at 71 8th Street, New Bedford.

Moby Dick at the Zeiterion (2:00pm)

Set sail for a whale of a tale with young sailor Ishmael, first mate Starbuck and Captain Ahab as they voyage across the seven seas in search of the legendary white whale, Moby Dick! In this stunning adaptation, Herman Melville's classic tale is reimagined by three actors, using their bodies, props, and a variety of musical instruments to create the sounds and sensations of life aboard the Pequod. Watch as a double bass and cello personify everything from the creaking of the oars to the moaning of the hull, to the elusive whale himself. Brimming over with music, wit and imagination, Theatre Triebwerk's adaptation of this beloved classic has been hailed by the New York Times as 'a luminous and engrossing' theatrical event. For adults and children 8+.
