

15th Annual Moby Dick Marathon Schedule

For 14 years people have gathered at the New Bedford Whaling Museum to perform a marathon reading of Herman Melville's Moby Dick. The 2011 non-stop reading of Moby Dick (roughly 25 hours) will start on 8 January and end on 9 January, 2011. On 15 November, The Whaling Museum will begin accepting requests for 8-10 minute reading slots. Readers will include descendants of Herman Melville and their families. Spectators are welcome at any time and admission for the entire event is free. Full schedule and details below.

"The Schools Meet the Schoolmasters." As a prelude to the Moby-Dick, Marathon, the Museum hosts a truly Melville-centric event along the same lines as National Public Radio's popular program, "Wait, wait, don't tell me." You will have the opportunity to quiz Melville Society scholars on all matters Moby-Dick and Melville. No questions are too tough. Free.

Saturday & Sunday, January 8-9

Noon

The Moby-Dick Marathon kicks off the NON-STOP READING OF THE GREAT AMERICAN CLASSIC. Come at any time; leave at any time. This 25-hour event commemorates the anniversary of the departure of 21-year old Herman Melville from New Bedford aboard the whaleship Acushnet in 1841. Join with us in this special celebration of our heritage. All are welcome to this free event.
