

19 Things to do this Weekend (June 26 – June 28)

A perfectly mild weekend in terms of temperature lies ahead. We'll be in the low to mid 70s throughout the weekend, which may not be ideal for beach weather, but perfect for yard work, lounging, or heading out to partake in activities. It will be a wet one this weekend – we'll see a "little" afternoon rain on Saturday, and Sunday will be breezy with rain. That shouldn't stop you from enjoying the many things to do across the South Coast and beyond!

As always, click on the title for more or detailed information on the event. Most of the events were pulled from our event calendar where you can find hundreds of local area events each month. The event calendar is FREE, so if you are a local business, and not taking advantage of FREE publicity, shame on you! Are you a local business and want to sponsor this high traffic, weekend guide? Contact info@newbedfordguide.com for more details. Have an event to add? Check out our tutorial. For more info, you can click on each title. Know of another event this weekend? Post a reply!

Parreeee! Exhibition at UMass (9:00am-6:00pm)

UMass Dartmouth University Art Gallery in Downtown New Bedford presents an exhibition "Parreeee!" inspired by our perceptions of French culture. Jurors: Jean-Francois Allaux, Associate Professor, UMass Dartmouth; Viera Levitt, Gallery Director, UMass Dartmouth; and Robert P. Stack, co-owner and curator, Yellow Peril Gallery, Providence, RI. The gallery has a wall available for postings of materials measuring up to 8.5×11 inches. This is open to anyone who would like to contribute a work of art, a poem, and/or a letter or postcard sent from a real or imagined trip to Paris.

Don't miss this special event at the "Z"!

hits like “Lady Marmalade,” “It’s Raining Men,” “Man I Feel Like A Woman,” “I Will Survive” and more.

Pictures in the Park: an outdoor movie series, featuring “Sandlot” (7:00pm-9:00pm)

Pictures in the Park is an outdoor movie series being held in New Bedford’s Buttonwood Park during the summer of 2015. Coordinated by a group of volunteers, the series is made possible thanks to: partnerships with the City of New Bedford’s Department of Parks, Recreation, and Beaches, which is providing activities as well as park access; the Friends of Buttonwood Park, which is helping us ensure that donations to this project are tax-deductible; and, most importantly, contributions from residents and businesses who support our mission.

The first film “Sandlot” will begin at sunset tonight, following a fitness activity being coordinated by the city’s Parks Department to engage children and families.
