

29-year old Wareham woman arrested for OUI, assault & battery on a police officer

At about 11:15 p.m. on Sunday night, Officers Aronson and Jennifer Braley responded to Cumberland Farms on Main Street for the report of a possible intoxicated operator in the area. When the officers arrived they encountered a female sitting in a car.

After speaking with the woman for a few minutes she began to berate the officers by yelling profanities at them and flail her arms wildly. She was then placed under arrest however resisted the two officers. The female spat at both officers and was transported to the station where her outburst continued. At the station Officer Lorenzo Grosso and Sergeant Daniel Henderson processed her as she continued to be disruptive and uncooperative.

After being placed in the female holding area she began to kick the cell door so hard that she damaged it to the point of requiring emergency repairs. Briana Tobin, 29, of Wareham is charged with, operating under the influence of alcohol, disorderly conduct, disturbing the peace, resisting arrest, 2 counts of assault and battery on a police officer, and vandalizing property.
