

31-year old man killed in rollover car accident on I-90

November 22, at approximately 6:50 p.m. Troopers from the State Police-Westfield Barracks responded to a crash on Interstate 90 Eastbound in Wilbraham. When the Troopers arrived on scene they discovered a vehicle that had struck the median and rolled over, coming to a rest in the breakdown lane. The operator was suffering from life-threatening injuries.

The 31-year-old operator, Glenn Moquin of Palmer, was transported to Wing Hospital where he was pronounced deceased. The right lane of I90 was closed for approximately 3 hours during investigation and clean up of the scene.

The crash remains under investigation by Troop B of the Massachusetts State Police with assistance from the State Police Crime Scene Services Section, Collision Analysis and Reconstruction Section, and the Hamden County State Police Detective Unit. Troopers were also assisted on scene by Ludlow Fire and EMS, and MassDOT.
