

AHA! ReNew Year's Eve Party

This is New Year's Eve—AHA! style. Ring in 2011 with AHA! on Dec. 31 with a fabulous night of creative energy, entertainment, amazing food and your favorite friends at the newly-opened Waypoint Event Center at the Fairfield Inn and Suites from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. You'll be greeted by artists who will lend you their talents to create the perfect party hat, adornments, or favors. From 9:30 p.m. on, you can savor the delicious fare and wet your whistle at the cash bar. Then dance the night—and year—away to Santa Mamba!

Take a break from the dance floor long enough to record your New Year's Resolution at the AHA! photo booth. Got negative vibes you want to leave behind in 2010? Check out our "ReLease ReGrets ReNew" karma-fixer, and leave your blues in the box! Tickets are $40 per person and available at Calico, Celia's Boutique, Celtic Coffee House and Crowell's Fine Art for cash or check only.

At midnight, there will be a champagne toast and dessert buffet. If you want to party past 1 a.m. and into the New Year, The Fairfield Inn is offering a discounted room rate, for only $99! You can start off 2011 with a complimentary breakfast and get right to work on some of those New Year's resolutions by hitting the gym or taking a dip in the indoor pool.

The Waypoint Event Center at Fairfield Inn & Suites are located at 185 MacArthur Drive, New Bedford, Mass. All party guests can take advantage of discounted "New Year's" room rates. Use the code "ReNew Years Eve" to receive the special price of $99 per room plus tax.
