

Baker: Three weeks of no school, no dining in at restaurants, no gatherings over 25 as part of new COVID-19 protocol

Governor Baker has made new protocols concerning COVID-19.

In a Sunday evening press conference, Baker announced that restaurants will be take out only, effective this Tuesday and continuing through April 17th. In doing so, Baker is also prohibiting gatherings of more than 25 people. This does not apply to grocery stores or pharmacies, according to Baker.

Baker is also suspending all schools in the state for three weeks starting Tuesday.

Also announced by Governor Baker, doctors are asked to provide consultations via tele-health and to postpone elective surgeries.

Social spacing is also continuing to be encouraged.
