

Barnstable Police arrest 42-year old New Bedford man for alleged armed robbery

"On Sunday October 9, 2022, at approximately 7:30pm Barnstable Police Officers responded to an Armed Robbery at the Ocean Street Market in Hyannis.

Barnstable Patrol Officers, with the assistance of a Yarmouth Police K-9 unit and Barnstable Detectives secured the scene, searched the area, and recovered evidence to assist in the investigation.

42-year-old Michael Medeiros of New Bedford was developed as a suspect and taken into custody on Monday October 10, 2022 by Barnstable Patrol Officers and Detectives. Along with Medeiros being arrested, a portion of the stolen cash was also recovered.

Medeiros is being charged with Armed Robbery.

Medeiros was ordered held on $540 cash bail and is scheduled for arraignment at Barnstable District Court Tuesday October 11, 2022." -Barnstable Police Department.