

Bristol Community College Police Department seeks public's help in IDing vandal

On November 17, 2017, during the early morning hours at approximately 12:30 am, the Bristol Community College building located at 800 Purchase Street, in downtown New Bedford, sustained some vandalism. The male depicted in the photo below is wanted for questioning.

Any information regarding this incident, or to the identity of the male in question can be received on the Bristol Community College Police Department's Anonymous Tip Line 774-357-3223.

