

Bristol Community College will host an open house at the New Bedford Campus

Considering college? Bristol Community College's New Bedford Campus will hold an open house on August 11, from 3-6 p.m., at BCC's 800 Purchase Street Building. Those considering enrolling for fall are encouraged to attend.

The open house will offer academic advising, financial aid counseling, and admissions information. Students can enroll for any course at any BCC site. Learn how you can start a new career in industries like healthcare, science, business, and more.

The August 11 open house event will also include representatives from the English as a Second Language Program, The Step up to College Program*, and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) programs at BCC.

The open house will feature walking tours of the state-of-the-art Campus, including visits to health science simulators, high-tech labs, and the Costa Academic Support Center.

Based in the old "Cherry and Webb" building in the heart of historic downtown, guests at the open house may also enjoy light refreshments.
