

Bishop Stang to Host Charity Book Fair

Bishop Stang High School will host a charity book fair to benefit the American Heart Association from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 12, 2014. The book fair will be in the Bishop Stang High School gymnasium, 500 Slocum Road, North Dartmouth, MA campus.

Hundreds of used books will be for sale to benefit the American Heart Association as part of a FIAT (Faith In Action Together) program. The proceeds will be donated in memory of former beloved 18-year Latin and English teacher, Richard Flynn, and Joseph J. Silva, Jr., husband of long-time Bishop Stang Math teacher Colleen Silva and past supporter of the Bishop Stang Chapel of the Annunciation.

Donations of books are being accepted. All are welcome to purchase books. Questions? contact Colleen Silva, csilva@bishopstang.org, 508-996-5602 ext. 466.
