

Boston police seeking public's help in identifying bank robbery suspect

Boston Police Department Community Alert: The Boston Police Department is seeking the public's help to identify a suspect wanted in connection to recent bank robberies in the north end of Boston.

BPD Community Alert: The Boston Police Department is attempting to identify the above-pictured individual in relation to two bank robberies that occurred earlier today, on Friday September 17, 2021, on Hanover Street in the North End. No weapons were shown during the incidents but the suspect gestured as if he had one in his possession.

Detectives assigned to District A-1 (Downtown) and the Violent Crime Task Force are actively reviewing the facts and circumstances surrounding this incident and are urging anyone with information relative to this investigation to contact (617) 343-4248.

Community members wishing to assist this investigation anonymously can do so by calling the CrimeStoppers Tip Line at 1 (800) 494-TIPS or by texting the word 'TIP' to CRIME (27463). The Boston Police Department will stringently guard and protect the identities of all those who wish to assist this investigation in an anonymous manner.