

Bristol County Sheriff's Office showcases photos of anti-police protesters

From the Bristol County Sheriff's Office:

"We've seen a handful of protests this summer by anti-law enforcement groups and organizations. Some of these groups are right here in Bristol County, while other protesters have come from as far as Boston, Rhode Island and Michigan. We've created this album to show the public exactly what these protesters are looking for and how they feel about the men and women who risk their lives every day to keep them safe. We'll update this album if more show up over time. As always, thanks for your support of law enforcement. Bristol County is home to some of the best officers, and people, in the world."
