

Bristol County Sheriff's Office donates two vehicles to the New Bedford Police Department

"The New Bedford Police Department would like to offer its sincere thanks to Sheriff Paul Heroux and the Bristol County Sheriff's Office for providing our department with two vans that were previously in your fleet.

We can assure you these vans will be put to good use by the New Bedford Police Department!

We appreciate your continuing willingness to support law enforcement agencies in Bristol County. Thank you."-New Bedford Police Department.
