

New Bedford family spreads holiday cheer with #ActsofRandomKindnessNB

A New Bedford family, updated by Karisa Leigh on her Facebook page, is spreading some holiday cheer by doing 25 random acts of kindness around New Bedford. The acts include leaving candy canes on cars, scratch tickets at gas pumps and leaving flowers and positive notes on cars.

Here are a few examples posted:

day two: candy cane bomb a parking lot.
this one is always a fav!
#actsofrandomkindnessnb ❤️

Day four: we left a couple scratch tickets at a gas pump. Spreading positivity and I love seeing how happy it makes Cordell. ✨
#actsofrandomkindnessnb

Karisa Leigh

Dec 1 at 8:33pm • 👤

our favorite time of the year is here. so excited to do our second year of 25 days of kindness acts! ✨ day one: leave flowers and a positive note on a strangers car. #actsofrandomkindnessnb

Can we make #ActsofRandomKindnessNB flood Facebook?

Do you know someone spreading some holiday cheer? Share their story with us at mike@newbedofrdguide.com.