

18-year old New Bedford man critically wounded in shooting

CORRECTION: New Bedford police originally reported the victim as an 22-year old man and later corrected it to be a 18-year old male.

New Bedford Police Detectives are actively investigating a shooting that occurred Monday at 2:30 PM at South First and Blackmer Street.

A 18-year old New Bedford man was shot and was taken to Rhode Island Hospital with life threatening injuries. This investigation remains extremely active. Detectives have three people of interest detained.