

Say hello to Clyde! Rochester Police Department's new comfort therapy dog

"Say hello to Clyde! This is SRO Connolly's new comfort therapy dog. Clyde was paid for through generous donations after we received pushback from town administration which included a demand for the police department to return the dog or "drop it off at a shelter".

If you see Clyde around town, please come up and say hello! Clyde is a great asset to our town as we firmly believe community policing is vital to a successful police department.

With Clyde's best interest in mind, we ask you to please like and share Clyde's new Facebook page which is linked here. This page will allow us to stay in touch with our community and keep everyone updated with Clyde's success.

It should be noted that Clyde is fully owned and fully funded by SRO Connolly."-Rochester Police Brotherhood.
