

Dartmouth Mall re-opens Friday with restrictions

This Friday, June 12, the Dartmouth Mall will slowly begin to re-open while taking precautions to ensure the well-being of shoppers.

“We thoroughly cleaned the entire facility during our downtime and have removed common area seating. Based on government restrictions, the food area will remain closed. In order to enforce the CDC’s social distancing recommendations, our play area will remain closed.”

The mall will be operating with reduced hours:

- Monday-Saturday: 11:00am-7:00pm
- Sundays: 12:00pm-6:00pm (starting on June 12)

The following stores will be open, however, hours may vary.

- Buffalo Wild Wings – open 11:00am – 10:00pm for take-out and delivery through delivery apps like Grubhub
- Burlington – opening 6/12/20
- Cellaxs – opening 6/12
- Five Below – open
- Francesca’s – opening 6/12
- Good News – opening 6/12
- Herban Acres – opening 6/12
- Hollister – opening 6/12
- iParty – opening 6/12
- Jewelry Express – opening 6/12
- Khoury Jewelers – opening 6/12
- Macy’s – opening 6/15/20
- Name in a Frame – opening 6/12
- Newbury Comics – opening 6/12
- Olive Garden – 11am – 10pm (car-side pickup)
- Panera Bread – 11am – 7pm daily (pickup and delivery)

- Pier 1 – opening 6/19
- Taco Bell – 10am – 2am (drive-thru only)
- T-Mobile – opening 6/12

According to information from the mall, the following will be taking place:

- Offering sanitizing locations throughout the property
- We thoroughly cleaned the entire facility during our downtime
- Removed common area seating
- Based on government restrictions, food court seating has been eliminated.
- In order to enforce the CDC's social distancing, the play area will remain closed
- Enhancing our cleaning and disinfecting protocols, utilizing recommended disinfectant, PH7Q
- Requiring security and maintenance personnel wear masks and gloves.
- Placing floor decals as a visual representation of social distancing

