

Dartmouth man arrested with heroin and suboxone at 3rd District court

Jason E. Costa 40 of Dartmouth was charged with possession of class A Heroin and possession of class B suboxone yesterday at 3rd District Court. Costa who was ordered held on a probation violation, by Judge Stapleton was found to be in possession of one bag of heroin and 10 strips of suboxone while being searched before being placed into a holding cell at court. He was arraigned on the additional drug charges and was held on $2,500.00 with a new court date of 3/8/17. Incident was reported at 9:40am.