

Dartmouth Police Department arrest suspect in recent larceny, recover goods

“Great job by Dartmouth Police Department detectives, Crime Analyst Keri Lebeau, and Officer Amanda Tavares, who all played vital roles in gathering information and identifying a suspect involved in a recent larceny.

As a result of their quick and efficient work, detectives were able to recover over $3,000 in stolen goods this morning ??

A special thanks to our friends over at the City of Fall River Police Department for assisting us with the recovery.” - Dartmouth Police Department.
