

Dartmouth Police Department investigating car crash into town hall

On Monday, September 14, 2020 at approximately 10:48 a.m., Dartmouth Police, and other emergency responders, were dispatched to the Dartmouth Town Hall after receiving a call that a vehicle had struck the front of the building.

Upon arrival, officers observed a 2020 Subaru Forester resting against the front of the building, and identified the operator as a 77 year old female from Dartmouth.

As a result of the crash, the female operator was transported to St. Luke's Hospital with minor injuries.

The cause of the crash remains under investigation, and though the building did not appear to incur any major damage, its structural integrity will be evaluated.
