

Dartmouth Police on surveillance charge 36-year old New Bedford woman with narcotic offenses

“On Tuesday, November 21, 2023 at approximately 2:30 p.m., while conducting surveillance, detectives assigned to the Dartmouth Police Department Community Impact Unit arrested Crystal ERVIN, 36, of Coggeshall Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, on an outstanding warrant associated with drugs.

During the course of ERVIN’s arrest, detectives located approximately eleven (11) grams of crack cocaine concealed on her person.

In addition to the outstanding warrant, ERVIN was charged with possession with intent to distribute a Class B drug.”- Dartmouth Police Department.