

Dartmouth Police seeks public's help IDing "five-fingered filcher"

"Calling all cAHs...Calling all cAHs!

Putting a slight spin on a song that an old dinosaur friend of mine named Barney used to sing, "I love you. You love me. Let's try to make it three for three!"

As we are collectively batting a thousand with identifying shoplifters over the past couple of weeks, we figured that we would once again ask for your help with identifying this one, who confidently strolled out of a local store without paying for nearly $500 worth of merchandise recently.

As per usual, if anyone has information that can help us identify this five-fingered filcher, they are asked to either send us a private message or call Detective Costa at 508-910-1755.
