

Dartmouth Police seek public's help IDing suspect who did hundreds of dollars of damage at Macy's

"Calling all cAHs...Calling all cAHs

DPD is looking for some help identifying this guy for his involvement in a recent disturbance at Macy's, where several hundred dollars of damage was done.

The best part about this picture is that it looks like he is actually saying ""Yeah! I just busted up a store in Dartmouth! Crap. I'm going to end up on the Dartmouth Police Department Facebook page!"

If anyone has information on his identity, they are encouraged to either send us a private message or contact Detective Kyle Costa at 508-910-1755. In addition, you can also submit an anonymous tip on our tip411 system. To submit a tip, simply click on the following link:
