

Discover Main Street Formals, the Biggest Little Tux (and Suit) Shop in New England!

Does “The suit make a man,” or does “The man make the suit?” Regardless of which side of the fence you fall, there’s something special about a perfectly fitted suit or tuxedo. But when you live on the SouthCoast, where do you go when you need finely tailored clothing for a special event? Where can you find exquisite tailoring, knowledgeable experts, and fair prices on fine clothing?

Answer: At the “biggest little tux shop in New England,” Main Street Formals, at 320 Main Street in Acushnet! Owned and operated by Robert and Kathleen Brunelle, Main Street Formals has been keeping locals looking their best for over 30 years. The proud recipient of the New Bedford Chamber of Commerce’s Small Business of the Year Award in 2013, Main Street Formals has a well-earned reputation for the superlative service they offer to brides, grooms, and prom-goers across the region. Their stellar reputation within the community validates this. With phenomenal ratings across several review platforms that consistently remark on the knowledge, friendliness and professionalism of the staff, there is no better validation for what they do.

“It was pretty thrilling when Adam Larson of MTV Road Rules came all the way from California to have us dress him and his guys for his destination wedding,” said Robert. “Every wedding has a joker in it, and Adam’s was no exception, with his father-in-law going to great lengths to get a surprise reaction out of the bride by purchasing two identical suits—one to wear for the ceremony, and one we cut into shorts and short sleeves for the tropical reception!”

Often the moments are touching as well. “One of the sweetest exchanges was when our UPS driver came in with his bride to book their wedding menswear. The bride was so moved by the site of her groom dressed in his wedding tuxedo, she began to weep, with the groom then reduced to tears of joy shortly after.”

These sort of experiences are what gets Robert and his staff out of bed, fueled and excited to open up and greet the first clients of the day. “It is not every day that we get such a “say yes to the ‘tux’ ” moment, but when we do, it reminds us that at the end of the day, working in the wedding industry is really all about love, and we are grateful to be a part of that.”

If you need to look sharp for a special occasion, need some alterations, or want to be taken care of by amazing professionals who value the relationship, you don’t need to go to the “big city.” One of the region’s top attire shops is right in our backyard.
