

dNB Burgers moving to Purchase Street in 2020

dNB Burgers announced on Facebook that they are moving from their current location at the bottom of William Street to the old Noodle Bowl location at 768 Purchase Street.

“It’s been a wild 5 years! Come celebrate with us we toast to a new decade and new burgers in 2020. Come share your favorite stories and food experiences where we were and get the deets of where we are heading!”

The new location will offer no dedicated parking (metered parking only) and the restaurant will seat less, but will provide access to Wings Court and a back deck. The owners are also hinting at a new menu.
