

Driver of Jeep hits guard rail and building on West Rodney French Boulevard

Three people were hospitalized Monday at at 2:50 p.m. when a white Jeep Cherokee traveling south on West Rodney French Boulevard onto South Rodney French Boulevard lost control and hit a guard rail and a building.

The male driver was transported to Rhode Island Hospital as a precaution. A female backseat passenger and a male front passenger were transported to St. Luke's Hospital.

Charges are possible against the driver.