

Fairhaven man charged with OUI after crashing truck and foot chase

On Monday morning at approximately 1:55 am, New Bedford police officers spotted a pick up truck traveling at a high rate of speed in the area of MacArthur Drive and South Street. Officers activated their blue lights and siren in attempt to stop the truck which failed to stop for them.

The truck lost control after striking a curb at the Fairfield Marriott. The male operator exited the truck and began running towards the hotel. Police apprehended him and placed him under arrest.

During the arrest he was found to be in possession of an expandable baton. Arrested and charged was Taylor Reid 34 of Fairhaven, MA.

1. Negligent operation of a motor vehicle
2. OUI liquor
3. Fail to stop for police
4. Unlawful carrying of a dangerous weapon