

Female Domino's Pizza delivery person robbed of pizzas Katherine Street

New Bedford Police are investigating a report of an unarmed robbery which was reported Saturday evening at approximately 9:50PM.

A 25-year old female Domino's Pizza delivery driver stated she was approached by three black males between the ages of 17-20 in the area of 60-65 Katherine Street. The males approached her and took the pizza bag she was carrying which contained 2 pizzas and bread sticks. No cash was taken and the driver was not injured.

Police are asking anyone with information to please contact them at 508-992-7463 or at tip@newbedfordpd.com.