

Freetown Police Department welcomes two new full-time officers to the force

“On behalf of the Freetown Police Association, we’d like to welcome our two newest full-time officers, Douglas Mongeon and Adam Salinaro.

Both officers previously served as part-time Reserve Officers before being selected to represent the Freetown Police Department as members of the 14th Recruit Officers Course at the Randolph Police Academy.

Officer Mongeon served as the Academy Class President and Officer Salinaro won the academy award for Top Driver at the Emergency Vehicle Operations Course!

Congratulations and job well done! We’re proud of you both! (You start work tomorrow.)” -Freetown Police Association.
