

GotChew food delivery service has you covered during the dine-in restriction

As Massachusetts officials enforce a State of Emergency due to the coronavirus, restaurants are being impacted in a significant way, being forced to serve food through delivery and pick-up orders. Luckily, New Bedford and much of the Southcoast area is being serviced by locally owned and operated GotChew food delivery company.

Currently, many GotChew partners are offering free and discounted delivery during the dine-in ban: Freestone's, Not Your Average Joe's, Sweet Ginger, Café Bon, Faneeks, Scottie's Pub, Barrett's Alehouse & Waterfront, People's Pressed, Buster's Sports Pub, Fay's Restaurant, Valley Top Tavern, Adriana's Mexican Restaurant, Mari Pizzeria, Nuno's Restaurant, Bayside Fairhaven, Cyd's Creative Kitchen, Tropical Smoothie Café, Juice'd Cafe, Spicy Lime, and Café Arpeggio.

GotChew adheres to CDC guidelines for sanitation and precautions and offers a 'contact-free delivery' service. Customers can request 'Contact-Free' delivery using their Special Instructions Box at check-out screen. Provide drivers with instructions on how you best want your order delivered.

Are you a restaurant that needs to add online ordering and delivery? GotChew can have you set up within two days. There is no sign-up fee. Head over to www.gotchew.co/partner and fill out the application.
