

[GRAPHIC] Deer killed at Made Barber shop in New Bedford

A deer jumped into the Made Barber shop on Rivet Street early morning on Wednesday, October 22nd. It jumped into the shop and was injured from the broken glass. The business was taped off and police shot and killed the deer fearing it would do more damage to the barber shop or break free and injure people the the crowd. After examining the deer it had some bruising and may have been hit by a car before entering the shop.

Photo by Angel Garcia.