About Frank Corp:

Frank Corp. started in 1956 as a pumping company. Frank Corp. grew into a Construction Company with expertise in the underground utilities field. It was a natural progression to expand into the environmental business which we did in 1989.

Frank Corp. is a full-service environmental company. We provide a range of services from emergency hazardous material spill clean up to planning for and servicing proper management of hazardous materials all the way from use through disposal. Our wide range of trained staff and extensive inventory of equipment are ready to handle your environmental needs.
