

New Bedford High School Teacher Joanne Maura Speaks Out

New Bedford High School teacher Joanne Maura is speaking out about the March 24, 2014, chair throwing incident. Joanne states she is quitting her job as a teacher at the end of the year. Here is her interview with ABC6.

ABC6 – Providence, RI and New Bedford, MA News, Weather

According to the New Bedford Police Department, Kemar Omar Roselus, 18 years of age of New Bedford, has been charged with assault by means of dangerous weapon on a person over 60, and disturbing the school, and malicious destruction of personal property. Details and video here.