

Legendary John Roberts to Perform at the Wamsutta Club

The legendary John Roberts

The legendary John Roberts will be in concert at the Wamsutta Club, Saturday, Sept. 7, at 5 p.m. Sing Out! Magazine calls him "One of folk music's most beloved voices." John was at the head of the British folk music invasion of the '60s, and has since delighted audiences both in the 'States and abroad with his witty repartee and powerful delivery of songs of the sea, seamen and other interesting characters. Be prepared to laugh mightily and sing along lustily! 'Ragtime' Jack Radcliffe will also do a full opening set on the piano.

First 30 tickets ordered get reserved cabaret seating. As always all concert-goers are invited to join the musicians afterward in the Rounder's Pub for food, liquid refreshment and conversation. Advance tickets are on sale now at <https://wepecket.ipower.com/tickets.htm>. Over 65, under 12 half price $18/9 $14/7 in advance).

