

Keith Middle School students prepare for FIRST Tech Challenge State Championship

We stopped by Keith Middle School this week to talk to some of the students in the robotics program. The kids are preparing for the Massachusetts FIRST Tech Challenge State Championship on 27 February at Natick High School. Keith Middle School is the only middle school in the district with a program like this. Here are the students showing us their newest robot and the software they are writing to control it.

Video by Josh Souza.