

Man arrested in Wareham for 3rd OUI, possession of cocaine

On Saturday, at 8:20 p.m. Wareham Police responded to the Mobil Gas Station at 2238 Cranberry Highway for the report of an intoxicated male operating a motor vehicle.

Wareham Officers approached the male who standing at the pumps near his vehicle and began to follow-up on the report. After an investigation, it was determined the male had been operating the vehicle, appeared impaired, and was placed in custody. Garry Currier, 67, of Falmouth, was placed under arrest by Officers James White and Garrett Smith, charged with operating under the influence, 3rd offense, and possession of an open container in a motor vehicle. During the booking process at Wareham Police headquarters, Officer Matthew Donovan located a small baggie of suspected cocaine and Mr. Currier was further charged with possession of a class B substance.

A second male, Kevin Ouellette, 51, of Falmouth, a passenger in the car was also placed in custody after it was determined he had an active warrant for his arrest.

Kevin Ouellette