

Massachusetts State Trooper injured, suspect charged with OUI, after cruiser struck in Milton

At 10:22 PM Monday a Massachusetts State Police cruiser was struck by a suspected drunk driver operating a pickup truck on Route 93 southbound, north of Squantum Street, in Milton, causing minor injuries to the Trooper.

The suspect, KIMBERLY JOHNSON, 40, of Brockton was placed under arrest for OUI-Alcohol and transported to the State Police-South Boston Barracks for booking.

The male Trooper was transported to Milton Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. The trooper was treated and released.

JOHNSON was operating a 2019 Ford F-250 pickup truck.

JOHNSON was bailed from the barracks and is expected to be arraigned today in Quincy District Court.

The crash necessitated the closure of the three leftmost lanes of Route 93 southbound. All lanes were reopened at 12:15 AM.

Massachusetts State Police photo.