

Massachusetts State Police hosts another successful, “Coffee, community, and cops” session

“Troopers from the Massachusetts State Police and Officers from the Sturbridge Police Department enjoyed coffee and conversation with members of the community at yesterday’s Coffee With A Cop event at the Sturbridge Coffee House.

Visitors not only got to meet some of the Officers and Troopers who keep their communities safe, but also got to shake paws with MSP Crisis Response K9 Luna and MSP Explosives Detection K9 Pippen.

Among those who participated were Sturbridge Police Chief Earl Dessert, School Resource Officer Garrett Danna and Officers Paul Janson and David Fortier and Dispatcher Barbara Boiteau, and from MSP, Sgt. Scott Shea, Trooper Farah Gray (the community liaison officer for Troop C), Trooper Aaron Richardson, Trooper Chad Luna, who is Luna’s handler, and Trooper Scott Irish, who is Pippen’s handler. We had a blast, and look forward to doing more of these events in the coming year.”-Massachusetts State Police.

Massachusetts State Police photo.

Massachusetts State Police photo.

Massachusetts State Police photo.