

Massachusetts State Police parade of cruisers delivers a bus full of gifts for Toys For Tots

“Troopers Beth Garfield and Steve Detschner of the State Police Yarmouth Barracks, and Trooper Antone Pereira of the State Police Dartmouth Barracks joined local departments this weekend with collecting toy donations for Toys for Tots.

They then participated in a parade of cruisers after stuffing a bus with toys and dropped the toys off in Barnstable.

Thank you all who participated to make the event happen. Toys for Tots distribution sites across the state are still in need of toy donations. You can drop off toys to any State Police Barracks through December 13th.” -Massachusetts State Police.

All photos by Massachusetts State Police.

