

Massachusetts Police seek public's help in IDing man who allegedly assaulted woman

The Marlborough Police Department is looking to identify a male captured by surveillance cameras early Sunday morning around 6:30 a.m. running away after allegedly assaulting a woman in her yard on Liberty Street.

The victim said she was watering flowers in her backyard when the suspect opened the gate and confronted her. The victim screamed which alerted her parents who were in the house. The parents ran out into the yard, spooking the man, and he can be seen on surveillance camera running away causing him toward the Water Street area.

If you recognize this man, please call Detective Brian Cox @ 508-485-1212 x 36957 or send us the Marlborough Police Department a private Facebook message.
