

Massachusetts Police put out APB for missing “Shrek”

“ HAVE YOU SEEN ME?!? ***

On Monday, this approximate 200lb cement SHREK SCULPTURE has gone MISSING from his home on MOUNTAIN RD, in Hatfield. There are evident drag marks showing that he did not go willingly. The sculpture is kind of an iconic statue in the town. It is worth approximately $500, but to us it is priceless.

The owner, who placed Shrek on the edge of his property next to a dragon statue, called to report the sculpture missing and that the dragon sculpture is ‘frustrated and lonely.’

If you have any information on his current whereabouts please reach out to our department or return him in the condition you found him.”-Hatfield Police Department.
