

Massachusetts State Police escort convoy for “Wreaths Across America”

“Yesterday, troopers assisted in escorting a convoy for Wreaths Across America, as the convoy entered Massachusetts with agencies from Maine and New Hampshire.

Troopers escorted the convoy to the City of Worcester, where a short parade through the city occurred, then Worcester Police joined our team to the Connecticut state line, where Connecticut State Police took over the escort, where they continued on to eventually arrive in Washington D.C.

To learn more about Wreaths Across America, go to <https://www.wreathsassamerica.org/>.”

All photos my the Massachusetts State Police:

