

Massachusetts State Police greet largest cargo ship to ever enter port of Boston

"The Massachusetts State Police Air Wing was overhead while the Port of Boston welcomed its largest cargo ship ever, the Ever Fortune.

This comes after a monumental project to deepen the shipping channel in Boston Harbor to allow for safe passage of this class of ship.

Attached is footage taken from Air 4. Also in the video are members of the State Police Marine Unit on scene in Marine 44." -Massachusetts State Police.
