

Massachusetts State Police, K9 'Margeaux,' visit daughter of Irish Police officer receiving therapy

"Massachusetts State Police Gang Unit Barracks Rep. Trooper Rob McCarthy (along with Trooper Carly Viscardi and K-9 Margeaux) paid a visit to Zoe Cryan.

Zoe is the daughter of David Cryan, a police officer in the Garda Siochana in Ireland. Zoe spent the last three weeks in Massachusetts in therapy for cerebral palsy. Zoe and her family made sure to make the most out of their visit by attending a Revolution game as well as the Red Sox home opener. Zoe is joined by her parents David and Siobhan and her brother Dylan.

Safe travels home and best wishes to brave Zoe and the Cryan family!" -State Police Association of Massachusetts.

State Police Association of Massachusetts photo.,/center>

State Police Association of Massachusetts photo.,/center>