

Massachusetts State Police rescue “fur baby” after he jumps out of car window

“Earlier today Troopers assigned to State Police-Logan were alerted by Alketa that her “fur baby”, Leo, jumped out of her vehicle while picking up a passenger at Terminal E.

Trooper Paul Rego advised dispatchers and patrols of the runaway. Within several minutes, dispatchers received a transmission from Trooper Shawn Howell, assigned to State Police-South Boston, that he had located a white dog outside of an Emergency Response Post and requested Boston Animal Control.

Troop F dispatch advised Troop H of the situation and coordinated with Trooper Howell to bring Leo back to Terminal E to be reunited with Alketa!” -Massachusetts State Police .