

Massachusetts State Police resume search mission for missing Brittany Tee

"The Brittany Tee search mission has resumed this morning in Brookfield.

The Massachusetts State Police Special Emergency Response Team, a trained search and rescue unit and State Police K9 Unit will continue searching a vast wooded area near Ms. Tee's home.

Additionally, the State Police Marine Unit and Underwater Recovery Unit will begin searching several ponds in the rural area. The state Environmental Police will assist in that effort. Meanwhile, the Office of Worcester County District Attorney Joseph Early and state and local police detectives continue to investigate the circumstances of Ms. Tee's disappearance.

Ms. Tee has not been seen or heard from since she left her Brookfield home on foot on the night of Jan. 10.

Anyone who may have seen Ms. Tee or has information about her is urged to call the investigation's tip line at 508-453-7589." -Massachusetts State Police.
