

Massachusetts State Trooper Lamonica presented with Badge #1 for longest service tenure on the force

“Congratulations to Massachusetts State Police Trooper Salvatore Lamonica, who on Tuesday was presented with Badge #1, denoting the active duty member of the Department with the longest service tenure.

Trooper Lamonica, who is assigned to the Commercial Driver Licensing Unit, has served with the MSP for 45 years. His family joined him for the badge presentation by Colonel Christopher Mason, Superintendent of Department, and Lieutenant Colonel Scott Warmington, Deputy Superintendent of Department.

Trooper Lamonica’s unit commander, Captain Robert Clements, praised his diligence, dependability, and work ethic. Thank you for your service to the Massachusetts State Police and the Commonwealth, Trooper Lamonica!” -Massachusetts State Police.

Massachusetts State Police photo.

Massachusetts State Police photo.