

Massachusetts teen, "Most Wanted" fugitive, sought in connection to gunning down of Brockton man, captured

"Massachusetts State Troopers, along with Worcester and Brockton Police, this morning apprehended KAHMARI T. PRICE, 17, who was wanted for a 2023 shooting homicide in Brockton. The Massachusetts State Police added PRICE to our Most Wanted list last October.

Members of the MSP Violent Fugitive Apprehension Section (VFAS), with assistance from the MSP Critical Technical Investigations Team, tracked PRICE to an address on West Boylston Street in Worcester. He was taken into custody without incident at 9:41 AM.

PRICE is charged with the Feb. 26, 2023, fatal shooting of 33-year-old Mark A. Boyd on North Main Street. The investigation into the shooting by the State Police Detective Unit for Plymouth County and the Brockton Police Department Detective Bureau ultimately identified PRICE as the shooter, and Troopers obtained an arrest warrant in Brockton District Court. PRICE was actively attempting to avoid capture since the homicide. MSP VFAS added him to the Department's list of Most Wanted fugitives on Oct. 11, 2023.

PRICE is expected to be arraigned in Brockton District Court this afternoon. The case is being prosecuted by the office of Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy Cruz."-Massachusetts State Police.

On February 26, 2023, the Brockton Police Department received multiple reports of a shooting on North Main Street. Responding officers discovered an unresponsive male suffering from a gunshot wound to his head who did not survive. The resulting homicide investigation conducted by the Plymouth County State Police Detective Unit and the Brockton Police Department Detective Bureau ultimately identified Kahmari T. PRICE as the alleged shooter. As a result, Arrest Warrant #2315CR000731 was issued out of Brockton District Court charging PRICE with Murder with Nationwide Extradition authorized. PRICE has ties to the Greater Fall River area and is actively avoiding law enforcement. The firearm used in this incident has not been recovered and PRICE should be considered Armed and Dangerous.
